Darling Toots:

When I came in this morning, I found your letter on my desk. Who gave you the flower, eh? You didn't tell me.

How did you sleep last night? Have a good rest? I had only about 4 hours sleep. Went to bed at 12. Was up talking to my father & mother. What did you do, after I left Toots? Don't forget to take your cough mixture. Haven't much time to write, Toots, the boss-man just come in & effect

I'll be called in a few minutes, so will close, with all my love to my little Loot,

Lovingly

Joy.
